Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed ed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures back-ache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. Bort & Co.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold

but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals, and strengthens the lungs and prevents pneumonia. Bort & Co.

Obituary.

Mrs. Laura Watts (nee Lucas) wife of Vernon Watts was born in Wood county, West Va., May 29, 1888., and departed this life at her home in Straitsville, O., Nov. 28, 1906, aged 18 years 5 months and 29 days. By her marriage to Mr. Watts she became the mother of two children, both of whom preceded her to the spirit realm. One of them an infant of three days, only in advance of the mother one week.

Laura as she was familiarly called was of a kind friendly nature, so that to know her was to love her and be her friend. She was mirthful and jolly, but with all she was religiously inclined, which inclination finally culminated on her last Sunday of life in a beautiful and enjoyable salvation, so that her natural sun went down in the brilliant light of her new found joy and bliss.

The body was brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nupp on Rochester street, this city where on last Friday at 2 P. M. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Willis of the U. B. Church and the remains were taken to Oak Grove Cemetery and laid beside the bodies of her two babies. She leaves a husband to mourn his loss. She was an lone orphan girl but made and left to mourn a large circle of friends.

ARMSTRONG.

Elmer Pitzer Armstrong was born in Logan Ohio, Oct. 11, 1857, and died at his home and native town Nov. 20, 1906 at the age of 49 years 1 month and 9 days.

He was the youngest child of Margaret I. and William Armstrong.

His boyhood days were spent in the public School and in assisting his father in the store and tin business.

On March 3, 1888 he was married to Miss Ella C. Voris, who with their son and granddaughter are left to mourn their great loss.

He was a man of sympathetic nature, and having spent his early life under religiously influences, which he never forgot, he was kind and generous almost to fault.

In 1896 he was elected chief of police in Logan and in this position he served three consecutive terms, and in 1903 was appointed to fill an unexpired term of almost two years.

It is well known that during all of his private and official life he truly exemplified the chief of all virtue, charity, and in his decess many will feel the loss of a friend in time of need. Though suddenly called he was resigned to the will of the Father.

MRS. BARBARA F. MARTIN,

Whose maiden name was Hull, was born near Maxvill, Perry county, Ohio, April 8, 1835. Later she removed to Hooking Co., near Logan, where on February 16 1854, she was married to Enoch G. Martin. Their first home was their only one, for over 52 years they lived in the same house. To this union seven children were born.

On Sabbath evening, November 25, 1906, this faithful wife and beloved mother entered into her eternal rest, aged 71 years, 7 months and 17 days.

The deceased is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Mary C. Fee of McArthur, J. F. Martin of Columbus, E. M. Martin and Marve C. Martin of Logan. Three children, W. A., Charles L. and Henrietta J. Martin have preceded the mother to the other shore.

Mrs. Martin was of German descent, her parents coming to Ohio from Pennsylvania, and was the last surviving member of the Hull family.

Many years ago she became a member of the Ilesboro M. E. Church, in whose fellowship she remained until called into the communion of the Church above. In earlier life, and until her health failed, she was ever willing and ready to help others. Many sick rooms were made brighter by her cheerful words and sympathetic efforts.

After passing the 71st mile stone of lifes pathway she finished her course, having kept the faith, a true wife and loving mother has departed and gone to the home land.

We miss her, greatly miss her, but we praise our Father for the sweet memory and the blessed hope that comforts and cheers our hearts. May her God be our God until we meet again.

"The Girl Who Looks Like Me," in which Kathryn Osterman is starring in her original creation of "Erma Desmond," was written by Charles Barnard and Mark E. Swan, each of whom have memorable successes to their credit. Mr. Barnard wrote "The Country Fair," which proved to be one of the greatest of the rural plays.

Mark Swan wrote "Brown's In Town," one of the best of the farces and he has just finished a fairy spectacle which is in the hands of Klaw and Erlanger for production this season. "The Girl Who Looks Like Me" will be presented with Kathryn Osterman heading a brilliant cast. The play is a farce comedy of up-to-date type requiring a large cast of especial proficiency, and the management has spared nothing to make the production complete in every way. Scenically the production is a delight, while the cast is of such caliber that an evenly balanced play is a certainty.

Miss Osterman is a beautiful woman, and the play gives her ample opportunity to accentuate this by the wearing of some exquisite costumes which were imported for use in this play. Graceful, spirited, dashing, and an excellent player, Miss Osterman and her company will give theatre goers a most pleasing two and a half hour's entertainment in "The Girl Who Looks Like Me." This attraction appears this week on Friday at the Great Southern in Columbus, Ohio, and ought to receive the support of our Logan public at its appearance here in the near future.

Infant Child Died.

The little babe, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes died suddenly of croup last Thursday night at the tender age of 2 years and 2 days.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. W. Willis, were held at their home on Rochester Street Saturday at 2 P. M. and the little body was interred in Oak Grove Cemetery.

To the Public.

All Logan Union Stores will remain open on evenings, beginning December 15, 1906, and be open until December 25, 1906.

Notice.

Hooking County Farmers Institute to be held in Opera House at Logan, December 17 and 18, 1906.

Good music. Speakers, ALLEN O. MYERS, M. C. THOMAS.

One of the most successful of our younger stars, Mr. Frank Beamish, will soon be seen in our city in "A Stranger in Town," heralded as a musical play and under the management of Harry B. Linton. In this vehicle Mr. Beamish is enabled to display his versatility and genius with consummate skill and charm of manner that will be found truly delightful. "A Stranger in Town" is one of those richly humorous and daintily charming musical comedies that is entirely free from the noisome double entendre and its delicious comedy will not bring a blush to the cheek of the most fastidious, yet its action is grotesque, its situations ludicrous, and its climaxes of the most intense laugh-provoking nature. In addition to the bright lines several catchy musical numbers and specialties have been introduced which materially add to the production. This attraction has been secured for a return date by special request of a large number of Logan theatre goers.

Miss Dora Nell Green, of New Straitsville, spent Sunday in Logan with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Green.
